Colorado Community Health Network

Social Media Policy

Colorado Community Health Network uses social media platforms to connect and interact with the communities we serve to promote Community Health Centers and CCHN as their association. We share content including stories, pictures, videos, and other information on platforms such as Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn and YouTube, as well as our websites CCHN.org and MissionDrivenCareers.org. Your engagement on these platforms is subject to the privacy policies of each individual platform, as well as CCHN’s social media guidelines.

We encourage interaction and comments about the content we post on our social media channels. This does not imply that Colorado Community Health Network agrees with or endorses the content, opinions, or views expressed within any public comment including external links, advertisements, political opinions, or other posts.

Commenting Guidelines
Colorado Community Health Network encourages discussion and we expect that all conversations will be civil and courteous. We appreciate a diversity of opinion but we reserve the right to delete any comment at any time if it violates our guidelines. We may remove comments that are:

- Abusive, violent, obscene, profane, hateful, or racist.
- Threatening, harassing, or sexually explicit.
- Off topic.
- Misleading or helping to spread false information/accusations.
- Inappropriate or offensive.
- Suggestive or encouraging of illegal activity.
- Posted multiple times.
- Libel, slanderous, or containing personal attacks of any kind, including the use of offensive terms that target specific individuals or groups.
- Contain personal information about employees or patients.
- Spam, including content that promotes products or services or contains gratuitous links.
- Political campaigning or lobbying.

Please protect your privacy by not including personal information in comments, such as an email address or phone number that could be used to identify you.

Please be respectful of others. We reserve the right to block repeat violators of these guidelines from commenting or viewing our social media channels.
